3 2 2

This property is something else. From your first glance at the coastal hamptons style facade, you'll be in awe. Walking through the front door, it's evident this home is very new and very well looked after. The design and layout of the home is superb. The kitchen and living area is expansive and opens up at the rear of the home which is facing north and west to capture all that afternoon light. The idea of the home is to create a haven for all, from the stunning stone bench top in the kitchen with pendant light above to the decorative ceiling fans through, this home has some character. Featuring three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a double garage, it's a property that has become quite popular throughout buyers recently. The block size of 431m2 approx. is utilised perfectly. The rear yard is quite spacious
